

Brenton S. Bean has joined the firm as a Partner in the Atlanta office.

Mr. Bean practices in the firm's Labor and Employment Law and Professional Liability National Practice Sections. He is also a member of the Wage and Hour and Lawyer's Liability practice teams.

Mr. Bean has a wide variety of civil litigation experience having tried cases in federal court, state court and arbitration throughout the country for nearly 25 years. He has defended public and private employers in virtually every type of Title VII, civil rights, and restrictive covenant litigation, as well as individual and collective action, FLSA and state wage and hour claims. Mr. Bean has also defended a variety of professionals, and particularly attorneys, in professional negligence actions.

Mr. Bean received his law degree from University of Georgia and his BA, cum laude, in Economics and German from Washington and Lee University.

Prior to joining FMG, Mr. Bean was a Partner at another national law firm and also served as General Counsel of a financial services company. He is fluent in written and spoken German and also an Eagle Scout.
