

Wendell K. Willard has joined the firm as Of Counsel in the Atlanta office.

Mr. Willard practices in the firm's Government Law National Practice Section.

Mr. Willard has been a practicing lawyer in the Atlanta area for over 50 years. His primary areas of practice have been in local government law (having served as County Attorney in DeKalb County, and City Attorney for Sandy Springs), and real estate law. He is a trial lawyer, having been involved with over 60 appellate court decisions in state and federal courts.

Mr. Willard received his law degree from Atlanta Law School and his B.A. from Georgia State University. Mr. Willard has been honored numerous times including the Georgia Council on Aging twice, with their annual Legislator Award, the Department of Human Resources with their Leadership Award, the Association of County Commissioners of Georgia, and the Georgia Municipal Association as a "Champion of Georgia's Cities."

Mr. Willard was honored by the State Bar of Georgia with the "Lifetime Achievement Award," which is presented annually to a member of the Bar for his service to the Bar and community. He is active in the Sandy Springs and North Fulton communities, serving on the board of The Newtown Park Foundation.
