

Remote Notarization by Jurisdiction

Federal	Currently, there is no federal authority for remote notarization. Senate Bill S.3533 is pending. You can find more information here .
Alabama	Remote notarization is impermissible.
Alaska	Remote notarization is impermissible, but authorization has been proposed. You can find more information here .
Arizona	Remote notarization will be permissible beginning July 1, 2020. You can find more information here .
Arkansas	Remote notarization is impermissible.
California	Remote notarization is impermissible, but a bill has been proposed. You can find more information here .
Colorado	Remote notarization is impermissible. A bill that would permit remote notarization is under consideration. You can find more information here .
Connecticut	Remote notarization is permissible until June 23, 2020. You can find more information here .
Delaware	Remote notarization is impermissible.
Florida	Remote notarization is permissible.
Georgia	Remote notarization is impermissible, but a bill has been proposed. You can find more information here .
Hawaii	Remote notarization is impermissible, but the state legislature is considering a bill. You can find more information here .
Idaho	Remote notarization is permissible.
Illinois	Remote notarization is impermissible.
Indiana	Remote notarization is permissible, but while Indiana has rules in place, there is not yet a list of approved vendors. You can find more information here .
Iowa	Remote notarization is permissible until March 31, 2020. You can find more information here .
Kansas	Remote notarization is impermissible.
Kentucky	Remote notarization is permissible.
Louisiana	Remote notarization is impermissible, but a bill has been proposed. You can find more information here .
Maine	Remote notarization is impermissible.
Maryland	Remote notarization will be permissible beginning October 1, 2020. You can find more information here .
Massachusetts	Remote notarization is impermissible, but a bill has been proposed. You can find more information here .
Michigan	Remote notarization is permissible. You can find more information here .
Minnesota	Remote notarization is permissible.
Mississippi	Remote notarization is impermissible.
Missouri	Remote notarization is impermissible, but legislation has been proposed. You can find more information here .
Montana	Remote notarization is permissible.
Nebraska	Remote notarization will be permissible beginning July 1, 2020. You can find more information here .

Nevada	Remote notarization is permissible.
New Hampshire	Remote notarization is temporarily permissible. There is no end date specified. You can find more information here .
New Jersey	Remote notarization is impermissible, but legislation has been introduced. You can find more information here .
New Mexico	Remote notarization is impermissible.
New York	Remote notarization is permissible until April 18, 2020. You can find more information here .
North Carolina	Remote notarization is impermissible.
North Dakota	Remote notarization is permissible. You can find more information here .
Ohio	Remote notarization is permissible.
Oklahoma	Remote notarization is permissible.
Oregon	Remote notarization is impermissible.
Pennsylvania	Remote notarization is permissible until the end of the state of emergency and only for Notaries who are court reporters/stenographers and Notaries carrying out duties in certain real estate transactions. You can find more information here .
Rhode Island	Remote notarization is impermissible.
South Carolina	Remote notarization is impermissible, but legislation is being considered. You can find more information here .
South Dakota	Remote notarization is permissible.
Tennessee	Remote notarization is permissible.
Texas	Remote notarization is permissible.
Utah	Remote notarization is permissible for approved remote notaries. You can find more information here .
Vermont	Remote notarization is permissible. You can find more information here .
Virginia	Remote notarization is permissible.
Washington	Remote notarization is permissible until April 26, 2020. The rule will take back effect on October 1, 2020. You can find more information here .
West Virginia	Remote notarization is impermissible.
Wisconsin	Remote notarization is permissible. You can find more information here .
Wyoming	Remote notarization is temporarily permissible. You can find more information here .